

GCSE English Literature Exam Information and Subject Updates 2021-22

Key Exam Information

Subject:	English Literature
Exam board:	Eduqas
Adaptations for 2022 exams:	Optional focus on texts; therefore the Anthology poetry will not be taught or examined.
Summer exam dates:	Component 1: 2 hrs. Wednesday 25 th May 2022. 40%. Component 2: 2 hrs. Wednesday, 8 th June 2022. 60%.
Other examined component details (dates/deadlines, weighting):	N/A

March Mock Exam

Date:	7th - 10th March
Content to be examined:	11B1 A Christmas Carol & Inspector Calls 11B2 A Christmas Carol & Inspector Calls 11B3a A Christmas Carol & Blood Brothers 11B3b A Christmas Carol & Inspector Calls 11F Language Component 2 11H1 Macbeth & A Christmas Carol 11H2 Romeo and Juliet & A Christmas Carol 11H3a A Christmas Carol & Inspector Calls 11H3b Romeo and Juliet & A Christmas Carol 11HF Language Component 1

Exam Preparation

Exam preparation tips:	Re-read the texts studied Revise plot, characters, themes, language and structure. Complete exam-style questions in timed conditions Use mark schemes and understand Assessment Objectives from the exam board
Links to subject pages on the exam board website	https://www.eduqas.co.uk/qualifications/english-literature/gcse/

	https://www.eduqas.co.uk/articles/gcse-english-literature-exam-tips-for-candidates-this-summer/
Revision websites:	https://www.gcsepod.com/ https://www.bbc.com/bitesize/examspecs/zw9mycw
Links to other resources:	Google classrooms organised by individual teachers.
Revision guides:	WJEC Eduqas GCSE English Literature: Student Book£17.69 https://www.amazon.co.uk/WJEC-Eduqas-GCSE-English-Literature/dp/019833284X Individual Text Guides https://www.cgpbooks.co.uk/3-for-%C2%A315-on-english-lit-guides